

RAMONA BARBER

On June 11th, 2005 the Iowa Soccer Association inducted its inaugural Hall of Fame class. Being recognized for their numerous achievements, accomplishments and contributions to soccer in the state of Iowa were: Ramona Barber, Harry Berting, Jim Cownie, Bonnie Larson, Aaron Leventhal, Michael Nemmers, David Proctor and Bob Wood.

Ramona Barber started as a soccer mom in Omaha and has since founded three pioneering soccer ventures. In 1990, she launched and presided over the Iowa United Soccer Club, establishing a higher-level option for both competitive players and professional coaches alike. Four years later, Barber started "CollegelInfo" a soccer-specialty service for student-athletes seeking guidance in selecting a college. She may be best known as the Founder and Director of the "College Search Kickoff" (CSK). The CSK has evolved into the Midwest's premier showcase at which high school senior players can be seen and evaluated by several hundred college coaches during the four-day event.
