

BONNIE LARSON

On June 11th, 2005 the Iowa Soccer Association inducted its inaugural Hall of Fame class. Being recognized for their numerous achievements, accomplishments and contributions to soccer in the state of Iowa were: Ramona Barber, Harry Berting, Jim Cownie, Bonnie Larson, Aaron Leventhal, Michael Nemmers, David Proctor and Bob Wood.

A familiar behind-the-scenes presence, Larson's reach exceeds her Urbandale roots. In 1977 she was a founding member of the Urbandale Soccer Club and still serves on its Board. Since that time, she's coached youth teams of all ages. Larson is also a certified referee instructor, assessor and assigner, instructing and mentoring hundreds of new referees. She serves on the Board of the Greater Des Moines Junior Soccer League as Referee Director and is on the Mid-Iowa Soccer Officials Association Board. Larson continues to assign referees to Iowa Premier Soccer League games, the Just for Girls, Urbandale, Iowa State Cup and College Search Kickoff tournaments, as well as area high school games.
