

AARON LEVENTHAL

On June 11th, 2005 the Iowa Soccer Association inducted its inaugural Hall of Fame class. Being recognized for their numerous achievements, accomplishments and contributions to soccer in the state of Iowa were: Ramona Barber, Harry Berting, Jim Cownie, Bonnie Larson, Aaron Leventhal, Michael Nemmers, David Proctor and Bob Wood.

An All-Missouri Valley Conference selection and four-year starter for Drake University, the homegrown Leventhal built an impressive resume leading up to and following his collegiate career. He played with the Urbandale Soccer Club, eventually joining the Premier team and doing extensive travel as a youth player. As a member of Iowa's Olympic Development (ODP) team, Leventhal was in the Region II team pool three times, once being named as a team alternate. He continued his exploits at Urbandale High School where he was named team Most Valuable Player (MVP) four times, and at the competitive Indiana University Soccer Camp, where he was named camp MVP. For seven seasons following college Leventhal played professionally with the United Soccer League's Minnesota Thunder.
