2019 PRESENTER

Head Coach of the women's soccer program for ten years after serving five seasons as an assistant coach for the Bulldogs, leading the team to #68 national RPI ranking this fall (highest in MVC and in the state of Iowa) and were regionally ranked in 2016 and 2017.

Horner guided the Bulldogs to the 2017 and 2015 Missouri Valley Conference regular season titles, earning MVC Coaching Staff of the Year both seasons.

The Bulldogs were undefeated in MVC league play in 2017 and 2015, sweeping MVP Player of the Year, MVC Defender of the Year and MVC GK of the Year both seasons.

Horner coached and recruited a 2017 Academic All-American (Ali Smith-Lenexa, Kans) and the 2017 MVC Freshman of the Year (Hannah Bormann-Amana, Iowa).

Horner holds a Premier Coaching Diploma from the NSCAA and an 'A' license from USSF.
