

IOWA SOCCER
SYMPOSIUM

2019 PRESENTER

Katie Overberg is the Title IX Coordinator at Drake University. Her twenty-year legal career includes discrimination, as well as employment law and counseling employers on policies and practices. She also played soccer at Washington University in St. Louis before attending law school at University of Iowa. Katie has coached locally with youth soccer clubs as a 9U-10U Academy coach and obtained an USSF E coaching license. As a mother of two, whom participate in club soccer and the Iowa ODP program, Overberg has also served on an affiliate club's Board of Directors. Additionally, Katie served on the Board of Directors for the Young Women's Resource Center where she assisted in policy development and human resources matters. She has spent time on staff of the Julie Foudy Sports Leadership Academy, a week-long camp focused on leadership, community service, and soccer for girls ages 12-18.

Katie Overberg
Title IX Coordinator
Drake University

