

KENTUCKY YOUTH SOCCER ASSOCIATION

JOHN AND SUE GOMPPER FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP

2017 Scholarship Recipients

LEXINGTON, KY (June 27, 2017) – After weeks of review and deliberation, Kentucky Youth Soccer has announced the winners of the 2017 John and Sue Gompper Founders Scholarship. In total Kentucky Youth Soccer will award a sum of $7,000 to help provide financial support to young students faced with rising college costs.

2017 Recipients:

Sydney Auteri – Thomas Moore
Amanda Wallin – Indiana University
Cameron Davis – Asbury University
Parker Klehr – Eastern Kentucky University
Garrett Evans – Western Kentucky University
Michael Glaser – University of Louisville
Jack Durham – University of Kentucky

"After reviewing each application in depth, we were amazed to learn more about the young people in our organization and how they are making a positive impact both on and off the field in their communities," stated Regina Martin, Kentucky Youth Soccer's President. "We believe that the lessons players learn in the youth soccer system – teamwork, dedication, discipline, passion, and a sense of pride – help to build a strong foundation for all of our kids regardless if they continue playing soccer at the next level or not. We congratulate all of our Scholarship winners, and the entire class of 2017 for their achievements and know that great things are headed their way."

For additional information about the Kentucky Youth Soccer Scholarship Program, please visit KYSoccer.net.

About Kentucky Youth Soccer Association

Kentucky Youth Soccer- a nonprofit organization founded in 1979 that serves 45,000 players, coaches, administrators, and volunteers throughout the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Kentucky Youth Soccer is a proud member of the US Soccer Federation and US Youth Soccer. Kentucky Youth Soccer programs provide a fun, safe and healthy environment for players at every level of the game. For more information, visit www.kysoccer.net.

###