

JOHN AND SUE GOMPPER FOUNDERS SCHOLARSHIP

2019 Scholarship Recipients

LEXINGTON, KY (July 1, 2019) – After weeks of review and deliberation, Kentucky Youth Soccer has announced the winners of the 2019 John and Sue Gompper Founders Scholarship. In total Kentucky Youth Soccer will award a sum of $8,000 to help provide financial support to young students faced with rising college costs.

2019 Recipients:

Brenna Wallin– University of Kentucky
Emily Webb – University of the Cumberland
Michael Otto – Bluffton University
Matthew Vanzant – University of Kentucky
Brielle Heuglin – Bellarmine University
Grant Needham – Saint Louis University
Lindy King – Murray State
TJ Minotti – University of Kentucky

"After reviewing each application in depth, we were amazed to learn more about the young people in our organization and how they are making a positive impact both on and off the field in their communities," stated Bob Drake, Kentucky Youth Soccer's President. "We believe that the lessons players learn in the youth soccer system – teamwork, dedication, discipline, passion, and a sense of pride – help to build a strong foundation for all of our kids regardless if they continue playing soccer at the next level or not. We congratulate all of our Scholarship winners, and the entire class of 2019 for their achievements and know that great things are headed their way."
