

Kew Taybi – Hall of Fame

- Involvement with soccer started in 1973 when his seven year old son starting playing soccer at the Florence YMCA
- At the same time, several miles away, another soccer enthusiast with the name of Ron Staurovsky started a similar soccer club in Villa Hills, Kentucky
- Was deeply involved with the merger of Villa Hills Soccer Club and the YMCA of Florence creating the Northern Kentucky Soccer League
- Became Kentucky Youth Soccer First State Referee Administrator. Held the SRA job until 1986.
- Became the Director of Assessment and held this position until his retirement from active refereeing in 1988.
- Officiated hundreds of tournament games including:
 - NCAA and NAIA tournaments
 - US National Team exhibition games
 - Kentucky High School Championship Game
 - McGuire Cup National Championship Game
- Inducted to the NKY High School Coaches Hall of Fame as a referee