On May 14, 2020, Governor DeWine in his press conference referenced low to no-contact sports being able to resume activities under strict guidelines on May 26.

We have since received clarification and guidance from the Governor's Office and the Ohio Department of Health on what low to no-contact sports means. This does not include the sport of soccer. All activities remain suspended per our May 12, 2020 COVID-19 Ohio North Update.
