- a. Violent or unsportsmanlike conduct.
- b. Aggression to members of the Organizing Committee.
- c. Aggression to the public or berating of opposing teams.
- d. Aggression to the Officiating members.

GAME TIME. Prior to the start of the tournament, the Organizing Committee will announce the official times for qualifying matches and for the finals phase.

EXTRA TIME AND PENALTY KICKS. There will be no overtime. The winner in the quarterfinal, semifinal and final round, will be the one who scores more goals than its opponent.

If Quarterfinals, Semifinals and/or a Final end in a tie score, the game must be defined via the direct winner of a penalty kicks. The penalty kicks will take place under the system of five kicks from the penalty mark as established by the FIFA procedure, a continued tie will proceed to execute alternate shots until there is a winner (sudden death).

UNIFORMS AND SHIN GUARDS. All teams must register the following information with the Organizing Committee - the color of the uniforms they will participate with in the tournament. The uniform consists of: game shirt, shorts, socks, shin guards and soccer shoes. All uniforms must include the following on the back of the shirt game - a unique number that will be assigned to each team player. No player can participate in the tournament if the shirt game has no number.

If in the opinion of the game Referee both club uniforms are confusing in colors, they may be prompted to change shirts, or alternatively, using coats to the visiting club.

HOME AND AWAY. The first team named in match information, is considered the "Home" team and the second team are the "Away". If there is a conflict of colors on the uniforms, the "Home" team will be responsible to use an alternate uniform.

MATCHES. For the timely initiation of matches, teams must report to the registration tent one (1) hour before the start of their game. There will only be a five (5) minute wait period (tolerance). A team can start playing a game with a minimum of seven (7) players on the field, including goalkeeper. If the team does not show on the field ready to play, or it happens to have less than seven (7) players during those first five (5) minutes, the match will be closed. If a team does not show on the field, the team on the field will win by a score of 3-0.

The bench can be made up of a maximum of nine (9) players as substitutes and two (2) registered members of the Coaching staff.

SUBSTITUTIONS. Any player who has left the game as part of a substitution, may return the pitch during the remainder of the game (unlimited).

SUSPENSION OF MATCHES. Once initiated, games may be suspended only by natural causes (hail or lightning), for reasons of major force as dictated by the Organizing Committee, either for lack of safety and security (invasion or aggression of public participants) or some other unforeseen event during the tournament.

If a team withdraws from the field once the game has started, the club to stay on the field wins the match by a score of 3-0.

If a game is suspended, the Organizing Committee will reserve the right to set (or not set) extra games to meet the schedule of the tournament without right of appeal by the clubs.

GAME BALLS. All clubs shall be responsible to present game balls for games.

HYDRATION. It is recommended that all players, coaches and families bring water and hydrate during the tournament days. The tournament will not provide hydration to participants.

PROTESTS. THERE WILL BE NO PROTESTS. ALL DISPUTES WILL BE RESOLVED IMMEDIATELY BY TOURNAMENT DIRECTOR. THESE DECISIONS WILL BE FINAL.

FRAUD. Those teams that attempt to use players who are not officially registered in the tournament, will automatically be expelled from the tournament without refund of registration fees.

GENERAL PROVISIONS. The body responsible for the interpretation and enforcement of this regulation will be the Organizing Committee. The Organizing Committee will have the broad discretion to resolve cases not covered by these rules.
