2. Membership in the Association is not transferable.
3. There shall be three classifications of membership: voting member, nonvoting member, and associate member. Categories of Members

A. Voting members – There shall be two classes of voting members:

- i. "Youth Organizations," consisting of clubs, a majority of the players or membership of which are 18 years of age or younger; and "Adult Organizations," consisting of teams, leagues, or clubs, a majority of the players or membership of which are 19 years of age or older. Youth Clubs and Adult Clubs that are properly constituted and qualified and in good standing with the Association are collectively referred to in these Bylaws as the "Voting Members."
 - ii. Nonvoting members – individual players, coaches, referees, parents of children who are 18 years of age or younger, and administrators.
 - iii. Associate Members – other organizations having an interest in soccer.
4. Qualifications for Voting Members
 - A. Each Youth Organization must be formed as a nonprofit corporation. Each Youth Organization must be in receipt of a letter of determination, or in the process of applying for Section 501(c)(3) status.
 - B. Each Youth and Adult Organization's Bylaws shall provide for a voting membership. The voting membership shall accurately represent all players that are registered and in good standing with the Voting Member and with USSF and FIFA policies and ByLaws.
 - i. In the case of players under the age of 18, their voting privileges may be exercised by a parent, step-parent, or a legal guardian who shall be entitled to exercise, collectively, one vote for each registered player who is a member of such person's or persons' household.
 - ii. A head coach registered with the Voting Member and who has been so registered for at least two full soccer seasons, while and so long as such individual is so registered, may be a voting member of the Voting Member.
 - iii. For these purposes, "registered" will mean that a player or coach, as the case may be, is identified on the official roster of a team subject to the supervision of and regulation by the Voting Member for the current season, or in any case where a current season has ended, for the immediately preceding season, provided that any player or coach who was registered with respect to a U15, U16, U17, and U18 team as of August 1 of any year and who is not listed on any other roster for any other soccer club shall be deemed to be registered until December 1st of such year.

- C. Each Youth and Adult Club’s Bylaws shall provide for a voting membership that fairly and uniformly represents all players that are registered and in good standing with the Voting Member.
- D. Each Youth and Adult Club’s Bylaws shall provide the Voting Member is managed by a board of directors consisting of at least five individuals, all of whom shall be elected by the voting membership and all of whom may be removed by that voting membership, without cause.
- E. Each Youth and Adult Club’s Bylaws shall provide that there shall be an annual meeting of the voting membership at which the voting membership shall elect individuals to fill the positions of those directors whose terms are due to expire, and/or to amend.
- F. Each Youth and Adult Club shall disclose whether it is affiliated with or has any relationship or arrangement with any other Voting Member of the Association.
- G. Each prospective Youth and Adult Club applying for membership in the Association shall disclose all positive and negative impacts that it may have with respect to soccer in Colorado if granted membership in the Association.
- H. Membership in the Association shall be reviewed by the Membership Committee. The Committee shall make its recommendation to the Board of Directors. Membership in the Association requires an affirmative vote of seven of the twelve Board members. Membership may be granted on a provisional basis and may be conditioned upon such further requirements as the Board may determine in its reasonable discretion.

VII. VOTING.

- A. Number of votes. Except as these Bylaws may otherwise specifically provide to the contrary, each Voting Member having the following number of players registered with the Association shall be entitled to exercise the following number of votes, multiplied by the Applicable Percentage for such Voting Member, on any matter presented to the Voting Members for a vote:

Number of Players	Number of votes
7-99	1 vote
100-499	2 votes
500-999	3 votes
1000-1499	4 votes
1500-1999	5 votes
2000-2499	6 votes
2500-2999	7 votes
3000-3499	8 votes
3500-3999	9 votes
4000-or more	10 votes

The Applicable Percentage for each Youth Club shall be the ratio of the total number of players who are 18 years of age or younger (as of the date of registration) and who are registered with the Association for the applicable year to the total number of all players of all ages who are registered with the Association for the applicable year, divided by the total number of Youth Clubs.

The Applicable Percentage for each Adult Club shall be the ratio of the total number of players who are 19 years of age or older (as of the date of registration) and who are registered with the Association for the applicable year to the total number of all players of all ages who are registered with the Association for the applicable year, divided by the total number of Adult Clubs.

For example, assuming the following Youth and Adult Clubs having the following number of players:

Youth Club A	500 players
Youth Club B	500 players
Youth Club C	1000 players
Youth Club D	1000 players
Total Youth Players	3000 players

Adult Club A	100 players
Adult Club B	400 players
Total Adult Players	500 players
TOTAL PLAYERS	3500 players

Youth Club A and Youth Club B would each have .653 votes (3 votes from the table above, times 3000/ 3500, divided by 4 Youth Clubs).

Youth Club C and Youth Club D would each have .857 votes (4 votes from the table above, times 3000/3500, divided by 4 Youth Clubs), Adult Club A would have .143 votes (2 votes from the table above, times 500/3500, divided by 2 Adult Clubs).

Adult Club B would have .143 votes (2 votes from the table above, times 500/3500, divided by 2 Adult Clubs).

- B. Two or more properly constituted and affiliated Voting Members in good standing with the Association shall be considered allied for such purposes whenever such Voting Members declare themselves to be so allied.
- C. Voting members may also be declared allied by a vote of a majority of the Board of Directors of the Association present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. In making such declaration, the Board of Directors of the Association shall base their decisions based on the following criteria:
 - 1. Voting Members share a common name
 - 2. Voting Members share a common logo
 - 3. Voting Members share a common uniform

 - 7. One or more individuals serve on the boards of directors of more than one of such Voting Members
 - 8. Voting Members share player rosters and information
 - 9. Voting Members share proprietary information
 - 10. One or more of such Voting Members directs or controls the coaching or administrative staff of one or more other such Voting Members.
 - 11. Any other evidence that demonstrates that such Voting Members have a common or shared identity, are acting under common control, direction, or influence, or are not acting as independent entities.
- D. Any Affiliation, alliance, merger or other similar agreement of cooperation between two or more Members shall be provided to the Association upon execution of such an agreement.

- E. Nonvoting Members – Individual players, coaches, referees, parents, and administrators are nonvoting members of the Association through their affiliation with a properly constituted Voting Member or as officers, directors, or committee chairmen of the Association. Non-voting Members shall be entitled to attend any meeting of the Board of Directors of the Association and be heard on any matter; and to attend the annual general meeting of the Association; and shall be entitled to the rights provided under Section V. Paragraph 6 of the Association By Laws.
- F. Associate Members – Organizations or individuals devoted to soccer, but not Voting Members affiliate members, or other affiliate members, may be affiliated with the Association as associate members. They will have nonvoting status, but will be entitled to the services offered by the Association under conditions determined by the Board of Directors. Associate members need not meet the requirements of membership set forth in these By Laws, but instead shall be granted membership by majority vote of the Board of Directors.

VIII. Membership Requirements

A. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section VIII, the organizational documents and governing documents of each Organization Member shall include the following:

(1) The membership of the Organization Member shall be open to any individual who is an amateur athlete, coach, trainer, manager, administrator, or official active in the sport of soccer who is not subject to suspension under USSF Section 4 of Bylaw 241 or pursuant to the disciplinary or risk management action of any amateur soccer organization in its territory; and except for a National Association, the membership of the Organization Member and its member organizations shall be open to any amateur soccer organization in its territory.

(2) The Articles of Incorporation of the Colorado Soccer Association, its rules and policies, and these Bylaws, shall take precedence over and supersede the organizational and governing documents of the Organization Member.

(3) The Organization Member shall not become a member of any organization that imposes any requirement that conflicts with the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, its rules and policies, or these Bylaws.

(4) The Organization Member shall have a Board of Directors selected through an open and democratic election process.

(5) The actions and policies adopted by the board of directors (or similar body), or officers of the Organization Member shall be reported to its membership, at least once each year at a meeting of the Organization Member's membership, with notice of the meeting and its purposes given to such membership at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the meeting.

(6) The Organization Member shall provide prompt and equitable procedures for resolution of complaints of its members and procedures for fair notice and an opportunity for a hearing with respect to any complaint of any Athlete, coach, trainer, manager, administrator or official who is a member of the Organization Member, or a member organization thereof, concerning a proposed declaration that any such individual is ineligible to participate in the programs or other activities of such Organization Member or a member organization thereof and such procedures shall conform, as applicable, to the provisions of Part VII of these Bylaws.

(7) The Organization Member shall adopt policies prohibiting sexual and physical abuse, nor shall any Organization member discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, or national origin.

- B. The Association may audit or review an Organization Member to determine compliance with the provisions of Section VIII. D. The Association's review shall be performed by a task force or committee designated by the Board.

C. Censuring, Suspending or Removing a Member

1. Any Voting Member, nonvoting member, or associate member may be censured, suspended, or removed from the Association by a two-thirds vote of the entire Board of Directors, for cause, after a proper hearing. The member has the right to appeal to the USSF.
2. Upon a two-thirds vote of a quorum of the Voting Members at any annual or regular meeting or any special meeting held for that purpose recommending that any Voting Member, affiliate, other affiliate, or associate member be censured, suspended, or removed from the Association for any reason, the Board of Directors shall promptly, after proper notice and an opportunity for such member to be heard, take such action as may be appropriate on the matter. The member shall have the right to appeal any adverse board action, but not any action by the Voting Members:
3. A nonvoting member or associate member may be censured, suspended, or removed by the Disciplinary Committee or the Board of Directors of the Association, for cause, after a proper hearing. A nonvoting member or associate member has the right to appeal to the extent provided in the governing documents of any applicable Governing Body.

D. As a condition for obtaining and maintaining membership in the Association, each Organization Member shall satisfy all the following requirements:

1. except as otherwise required by applicable law, comply with all Bylaws, policies and requirements of the Association, and all statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of FIFA and CONCACAF, each as they may be amended or modified from time-to-time, to the extent applicable to that classification of Organization Member; and
2. At the request of the Board of Directors of the Association, make available to the Association its governing documents, including any amendment to its organizational documents and its most current annual financial statements within thirty (30) days after the end of its fiscal year; and
3. Require that every player, coach, trainer, manager, administrator, and official that is sponsored, financed, coached, organized, or administered by an Organization Member or a member organization of an Organization Member be registered with the appropriate Organization Member; and
4. Register with the Association each seasonal year the names and addresses of those players, coaches, trainers, managers, administrators, and officials registered with such Organization Member and provide all necessary documentation required by the Association; and
5. Pay fees and other amounts due to the Association by deadlines set by the Association.
6. Comply with all Federal, State, and local laws and regulations.
7. If the Organization Member is responsible for recruiting, training, fielding, or funding soccer players, establish a risk management program to promote the safety and protect the welfare of participants.

E. If an Organization Member intends or is being compelled by law to dissolve or otherwise terminate its existence for any reason, it shall immediately notify the Association.

IX. Disputes and Discipline

- A. Any complaint by one Voting Member against another Voting Member or any complaint by an individual or an Voting Member which alleges that a violation of Colorado Soccer Association rules, policies or procedures shall be in writing and signed under oath by the individual or the chief executive of the Member making the complaint.

- B. The complaint shall be filed with the Chief Executive Officer by certified mail with a copy served on the other parties by certified mail at the same time. The complaint shall set forth the factual allegations in numbered paragraphs with each paragraph containing a single factual allegation.
- C. The complaint shall contain also, at a minimum:
 - (1) the names and addresses of the parties;
 - (2) the alleged grounds of noncompliance;
 - (3) supporting evidence or documentation forming the basis of the complaint; and
 - (4) the relief sought.

An answer to the complaint shall be filed by the respondent with the Secretary General by certified mail, with a copy served by certified mail on the parties, within 30 days after the filing of the complaint. If the respondent is without sufficient knowledge or information to admit or deny a given factual allegation, the respondent may so respond. Failure to file an answer within the requisite time period shall serve as a default, except upon a showing of good cause.

- D. After the filing of an Answer, the Members shall attend a mandatory mediation with the Chief Executive Officer of Colorado Soccer.
- E. If the Members cannot resolve the matters raised in the Complaint through the mandatory mediation, then the complaint and answer shall be referred to a three-person Hearing Board. Each Member shall select one Member of the Hearing Board. The President shall appoint the third member. No member of the Hearing Panel shall have a direct interest, either personally or by virtue of an organizational membership affiliation, in the outcome of the proceedings.
- F. The Hearing Board shall review the grievance complaint and answer. A hearing shall be held no later than 90 days after the complaint was filed. The Hearing Board shall render its written decision within 30 days after the hearing on the complaint. The Hearing Board shall be authorized to enter whatever relief it deems appropriate.
- G. There shall be a right of appeal of a Hearing Examiner's decision to the Board of Directors under this bylaw, which decision may only be overturned or amended by a two-thirds vote of the Board.
- H. Each party shall pay their own expenses for participating in the hearing.

X. NEW MEMBER QUALIFICATIONS AND DUTIES

- A. Except as specifically provided otherwise in these Bylaws, each Organization Member has exclusive jurisdiction over its own programs and activities; provided, however, each entity applying for membership as a Voting Member in the Association shall:
 - 1. Submit a copy of its rules, procedures, constitution, bylaws, 501(c)(3) nonprofit status (in the case of Youth Clubs), and player lists to the Membership Committee.
 - 2. Comply with Section VIII of these By Laws.
- B. New entities (other than entities resulting from the merger of one or more existing Voting Members) applying for membership must include in their player base at least 100 currently unregistered players.
- C. The Board of Directors may waive one or more membership requirements for a new Voting

1. A quorum shall consist of thirty percent of the total votes in the Association.
2. The Voting Members present at duly held meetings at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Voting Members to leave less than a quorum, provided however that any action taken (other than adjournment) must be approved by at least a majority of the Voting Member required to constitute a quorum.
3. Voting Members of record, in good standing, may grant a written proxy to any other Voting Member. No one Voting Member shall be entitled to hold proxies on behalf of more than ten other Voting Members. All proxies must be submitted to the Credentials Committee ten days before the AGM, on original club letterhead and signed by the President of the Voting Member granting the proxy.
4. All meetings shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition.
5. Special meetings of the membership may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or by ten Voting Members.
6. All notices of meetings of the membership shall be sent not less than ten days before the date of such meeting to each Voting Member. The notice shall specify the place, date, and hour of the meeting and (1) in case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, or (2) in case of the annual general meeting, those matters which the Board of Directors, at the time of giving notice, intends to present for action by the Voting Members.

XVI. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- A. The voting members of the Board of Directors shall consist of the elected Directors. Additional ex-officio members shall be the past presidents of the Association and any member of the Association who is a member of the board of directors of USYSA or USASA, or USSF National Committee. The Board may appoint other ex-officio board members. Ex-officio board members shall have the same rights as any Director, but may not vote.
- B. The Board of Directors shall conduct the following affairs of the Association in accordance with the Bylaws including but not limited to:
1. Operate in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws consistent with the Bylaws of the USYSA, USASA and the USSF.
 2. Be responsible for the collection of fees for services provided by the Association.
 3. Oversee the registration of players, teams, clubs, coaches, referees, and leagues.
 4. Communicate with members, the media and the regional and national bodies regarding programs and operations.
 5. Oversee the creation and management of soccer leagues.
 6. Formulate programs to promote and improve the quality of soccer in Colorado.
 7. Sanction soccer tournaments.
 8. Manage and operate USYS and USSF sponsored national soccer competition tournaments.
 9. Organize and host national and regional soccer competitions.
 10. Provide insurance programs for the membership.

11. Raise funds.
12. Formulate, interpret, and enforce the rules and procedures of the Association.
13. Approve an annual budget to be ratified by the membership at the annual general meeting.
14. Hear appeals of decisions of the Protest and Appeals Committee to ensure due process is met and that there is compliance with CSA By Laws and policies.
15. Act upon recommendations by committees.
16. Approve the President's recommendation of the State Referee Administrator based on the input and recommendation of the Referee Committee.
17. The Board of Directors shall prescribe policies concerning the administration of the National Referee Development Program consistent with these bylaws, including policies related to referee registration, assignment of game officials, uniforms, Association FIFA referee and assistant referee qualifications, assignment of game officials, assignors, use of unregistered referees, misconduct toward game officials, misconduct by game officials, and ethics and restrictions on game officials and assignors.

XVII. Meetings of the Board of Directors

- A. Regular meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least quarterly at a time and a location to be determined by the Board. The President or the Board of Directors may change the time and location of the meeting with ten days notification to each board member. Directors may attend a meeting through any means of communication, if all members attending the meeting or a special can communicate with each other during the meeting.
- B. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by three Directors, and may be held within or without the State of Colorado at such time and place as a notice or waiver thereof may specify. Notice of such meetings shall be sent by mail, email, in person or via facsimile to the last known address of each Director at least five days prior to the date and time fixed for the meeting. The business to be transacted at a special meeting of the Board of Directors must be specified in the notice and only that business shall be transacted. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at any time that all Directors are present, in person or by electronic means, and the presence or participation via electronic means of any Director at a meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting except as otherwise provided by law.
- C. Quorum. A quorum at all meetings of the Board of Directors shall consist of a majority of the number of Directors, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time without further notice until a quorum be secured. The act of the majority of the Directors present at a properly called meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.
- D. Waiver of Notice. Any officer or director may waive, for himself or herself only, in writing, any notice of any regular meeting or special meeting of the Board of Directors required to be given by law or under these Bylaws, whether before or after the time stated therein.
- E. Meetings by Electronic Communication. Members of the Board of Directors of any committee thereof may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.
- F. Action without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors, or any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if taken in accordance with Paragraphs 6. (a) or (b), below. Any action taken without a meeting shall have the same effect as action taken with a meeting. All signed written instruments necessary for any action taken without a meeting shall be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors.

G. Action may be taken without a meeting if each and every member of the board of directors in writing votes for, votes against or abstains from voting on such action and the affirmative vote for such action equals or exceeds the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all the directors then in office were present and voted. Action may be taken without a meeting pursuant to C.R.S. § 7-128-202 C.R.S. as follows:

1. Required Notice to Directors. An action without a meeting may only be taken if the corporation transmits notice in writing to each director stating the action to be taken, the time within which a director must respond, and that failure to respond by the time stated in the notice and failing to demand in writing by the time stated in the notice that action not be taken without a meeting. The notice may also include any other matters the corporation determines to include.
2. Action by Directors. Action may be taken without a meeting only if notice as described in (b)(i) above is transmitted in writing to each director, and each director, by the time stated in the notice (i) votes in writing for such action, or (ii) votes in writing against, abstains from voting on such action, or fails to respond or vote, and fails to demand in writing that such action only be taken with a meeting. The vote, abstention, or demand that such action not be taken without a meeting by a director may be revoked in writing by that director if received by the corporation by the time stated in the notice.
3. Contents and Form of Writing. The writing required by directors under this Section (b) must inform the corporation of the identity of the director, the vote, abstention, demand or revocation of that director, and the proposed action to which such vote, abstention, demand, or revocation relates. Such writing may be transmitted to or received by the corporation by electronically transmitted facsimile, email, or other form of wire or wireless communication, or by hand delivery or U.S. mail, and shall be effective upon receipt by the corporation.
4. Vote Required and Effective Date. Action without a meeting under this Section (b) may only be taken if, at the end of the time stated in the notice, the affirmative votes for such action received in writing and not revoked equals or exceeds the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all of the directors then in office were present and voted, and the corporation has not received an unrevoked written demand by a director, within the time stated in the notice, that such action not be taken without a meeting.
5. Action taken without a meeting under this Section (b) shall be effective on the date by which the directors must respond as stated in the notice.

H. Items of Business. Items of business for consideration by the Board of Directors shall be submitted to the Director of Operations by a Voting Member of the Association or by a member of the Board of Directors no later than ten days prior to the meeting.

I. An agenda shall be delivered to the members of the Board of Directors by the Executive Director no later than three days prior to the meeting.

J. Other items of business may be considered and acted on by the Board of Directors, with a concurrence of a two-thirds majority of the Directors present at the meeting. The order of business shall be:

- Call to Order
- Approval of Minutes
- Club Matters requiring Board of Directors action
- Reports of Officers
- Committee Matters requiring Board of Directors action
- Old Business

New Business

Date, time, and place of next Board of Directors meeting

Adjournment

Robert's Rules of Order. All meetings of the Board of Directors shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition. The President may participate in discussions and debate but may not vote except in case of a tie vote.

K. Indemnification

1. Scope of indemnification. The Association shall indemnify each director, officer, employee, and volunteer of the Association to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of the State of Colorado, and may in its discretion purchase insurance insuring its obligations hereunder or otherwise protecting the persons intended to be protected by this Section D.1.
2. The Association shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to indemnify any agent of the Association not otherwise covered by this Section D. 1. to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of the State of Colorado.
3. Savings Clause: Limitation. If any provision of the Act or these bylaws dealing with indemnification shall be invalidated by any court on any ground, then the Association shall nevertheless indemnify each party otherwise entitled to indemnification hereunder to the fullest extent permitted by law or any applicable provision of the Act or these bylaws that shall not have been invalidated. Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, the Association shall neither indemnify any person nor purchase any insurance in any manner or to any extent that would jeopardize or be inconsistent with the qualification of the Association as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or that would result in the imposition of any liability under the Internal Revenue Code.

L. General Standards of Conduct for Directors and Officers.

1. Discharge of Duties. Each director and each officer shall discharge the director/officer duties as a director or officer, including as a member of a committee of the board, (i) in good faith; (ii) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and (iii) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.
2. Reliance on Information, Reports, Etc... In discharging duties, a director or officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by: (i) one or more officers or employees of the Association whom the director or officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (ii) legal counsel, a public accountant or another person as to matters the director or officer reasonably believes are within such person's professional or expert competence and who the director or officer believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented. A director or officer is not acting in good faith if the director or officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by this Section E.2. unwarranted.
3. Liability to Association or Its Members. A director or officer shall not be liable as such to the Association or its members for any action taken or omitted to be taken as a director or officer, as the case may be, if, in connection with such action or omission, the director or officer performed the duties of the position in compliance with this Section E.3.
4. Director Not Deemed to Be a "Trustee." A director, regardless of title, shall not be deemed to be a "trustee" within the meaning given that term by trust law with respect to the Association or with respect to any property held or administered by the Association including, without limitation, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of such property.

5. Conflicts of Interest

- a. Definitions. A conflict of interest arises when any "responsible person" or any "party related to a responsible person" has an "interest adverse to the corporation." A "responsible person" is any individual able to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the corporation, and specifically includes, without limitation, directors, and officers of the corporation. A "party related to a responsible person" includes his or her extended family (including spouse, ancestors, descendants and siblings, and their respective spouses and descendants), an estate or trust in which the responsible person or any member of his or her extended family has a beneficial interest or a fiduciary responsibility, or an entity in which the responsible person or any member of his or her extended family is a director, trustee or officer or has a financial interest.
- b. "An interest adverse to the corporation" includes any interest in any contract, transaction or other financial relationship with the corporation, and any interest in an entity whose best interests may be impaired by the best interests of the Association including, without limitation, an entity providing any goods or services to or receiving any goods or services from the corporation, an entity in which the Association has any business or financial interest, and an entity providing goods or services or performing activities similar to the goods or services or activities of the corporation.
- c. Disclosure. If a responsible person is aware that the Association is about to enter into any transaction or make any decision involving a conflict of interest, (a "conflicting interest transaction"), such person shall:
 - i. Immediately inform those charged with approving the conflicting interest transaction on behalf of the Association of the interest or position of such person or any party related to such person;
 - ii. Aid the persons charged with making the decision by disclosing any material facts within the responsible person's knowledge that bear on the advisability of the Association entering into the conflicting interest transaction; and
 - iii. Not be entitled to vote on the decision to enter into such transaction.
- d. Approval of Conflicting Interest Transactions. The Association may enter into a conflicting interest transaction provided either:
 - i. The material facts as to the responsible person's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or to a committee of the board of directors that authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction, and the board or committee in good faith authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors on the board or committee, even though the disinterested directors are less than a quorum; or

- ii. The material facts as to the responsible person's relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the members, and the conflicting interest transaction is specifically authorized, approved, or ratified in good faith by a vote of the members entitled to vote thereon; or
- iii. The conflicting interest transaction is fair as to the Association.

XVIII. RECORDS OF THE CORPORATION

- A. Minutes, Etc. The corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of the members and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the members or board of directors without a meeting, a record of all actions taken by a committee of the board of directors in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation, and a record of all waivers of notices of meetings of the members and of the board of directors or any committee of the board of directors.
- B. Accounting Records. The corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.
- C. Membership List. The corporation, or its agent, shall maintain a record of the members in a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of the members in alphabetical order, by class, showing the number of votes each member is entitled to vote.
- D. Records in Written Form. The corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time. \
- E. Records Maintained at Principal Office. The corporation shall keep a copy of each of the following records at its principal office:
 - 1. The articles of incorporation;
 - 2. These bylaws;
 - 3. Resolutions adopted by the board of directors relating to the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations and obligations of the members or any class of the members;
 - 4. The minutes of all meetings of the members, and records of all action taken by the members without a meeting, for the past three years;
 - 5. All written communications within the past three years to the members generally as the members;
 - 6. A list of the names and business or home addresses of the current directors and officers;
 - 7. A copy of the most recent corporate report delivered to the Colorado secretary of state;
 - 8. All financial statements prepared for periods ending during the last three years that a member of the corporation could have requested under section 6.6(c);
 - 9. The corporation's application for recognition of exemption and the tax-exemption determination letter issued by the Internal Revenue Service; and
 - 10. All other documents or records required to be maintained by the corporation at its principal office under applicable law or regulation.
- F. Inspection of Records by Members.
 - 1. Records Maintained at Principal Office. A member (including a beneficial owner whose membership interest is held in a voting trust and any other beneficial owner of a membership interest who establishes beneficial ownership) shall be entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at the corporation's principal office, any of the records of the corporation described in Section 6.5, provided that the member gives the corporation written demand at least five business days before the date on which the member wishes to inspect and copy such records.

2. Other Records. A member is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at a reasonable location specified by the corporation, any other records of the corporation, provided that the member gives the corporation written demand at least five business days before the date on which the member wishes to inspect and copy such records, and satisfies the following requirements:

- (a) The member has been a member for at least three months immediately preceding the demand to inspect or copy or is a member holding at least five percent of the voting power as of the date the demand is made;
- (b) The demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose reasonably related to the demanding member's interest as a member;
- (c) The member describes with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records the member desires to inspect; and
- (d) The records are directly connected with the described purpose.

If the member demands to inspect the record of members pursuant to this Section 6.6(b), the corporation may comply with such demand by furnishing to the member a membership list that complies with Section 6.3 and that was compiled no earlier than the date of the member's demand.

3. Financial Statements. Upon the written request of any member, the corporation shall mail to such member its most recent annual financial statements, if any, and its most recently published financial statements, if any, showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and results of its operations.

3. Membership List.

(a) Preparation of Membership List. After fixing a record date for a notice of a meeting or for determining the members entitled to take action by written ballot, the corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all members who are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting or to participate in such action by written ballot. The list shall show the address of each member entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting or to take such action by written ballot and the number of votes each member is entitled to vote at the meeting or by written ballot.

(b) Right of Inspection. If prepared in connection with a meeting of the members, the membership list shall be available for inspection by any member entitled to vote at the meeting, beginning the earlier of ten days before the meeting for which the list was prepared or two business days after notice of the meeting is given and continuing through the meeting, and any adjournment thereof, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the notice of the meeting in the city where the meeting will be held. The corporation shall make the membership list available at the meeting, and any member entitled to vote at the meeting is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment. If prepared in connection with action to be taken by the members by written ballot, the membership list shall be available for inspection by any member entitled to cast a vote by such written ballot, beginning on the date that the first written ballot is delivered to the members and continuing through the time when such written ballots must be received by the corporation in order to be counted, at the corporation's principal office. A member entitled to vote at the meeting or by such written ballot is entitled upon written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of Section 6.6(b) and the provisions of Sections 6.6(e)(i) and (ii), to copy the list, during regular business hours, at the member's expense, and during the period it is available for inspection.

(c) Limitation on Use of Membership List. Without consent of the board of directors, a membership list or any part thereof may not be obtained or used by any person for any purpose unrelated to a member's interest as a member. Without limiting the generality of the previous sentence, without the consent of the board of directors a membership list or any part thereof may not be: (i) used to solicit money or property unless such money or property will be used solely to solicit the votes of the members in an election to be held by the corporation; (ii) used for any commercial purpose; or (iii) sold to or purchased by any person.

4. Scope of Members' Inspection Rights.

(a) Agent or Attorney. The member's duly authorized agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights as the member.

(b) Right to Copy. The right to copy records under this Article VI includes, if reasonable, the right to receive copies made by photographic, electronic, or other means.

(c) Reasonable Charge for Copies. Except for requests for financial statements pursuant to Section 6.6(c), the corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of any documents provided to a member. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production and reproduction of the records.

5. Litigation. Nothing in this Article VI shall limit the right of a member to inspect records to the same extent as any other litigant if the member is in litigation with the corporation, or the power of a court to compel the production of corporate records for examination.

XIX. COMMITTEES

A. The duties of all Committees shall be as follows:

1. No later than 30 days following the Annual General Membership meeting, all Committee Chairs shall submit in writing the names, addresses, phone numbers and affiliation of current and proposed committee members.
2. All Committees shall provide a report to the President and to the Executive Director of any meeting held or action taken by the Committee.

B. In addition, the duties of specific Committees are as follows:

1. The Membership Committee shall:

- (a) Review applications from potential new Voting Members.
- (b) Recommend to the Board of Directors whether to accept a new entity as a Voting Member.
- (c) Prepare a membership application form for prospective new Voting Members as outlined in these bylaws.
- (d) Establish and/or modify the criteria and set forth this information in a policy by which new Members are evaluated.
- (e) Periodically review membership status of existing Voting Members and determine that they are in good standing.
- (f) Solicit, promote, and help create new soccer clubs, especially in undeveloped areas. This is a standing committee.

2. The Disciplinary Committee shall enforce the Bylaws and Rules and Procedures of the Association and impose appropriate penalties for violations thereof. This is an ad hoc committee.

3. The Protest and Appeals Committee shall hear and determine all appeals and protests pertaining to the Bylaws, Rules, and Procedures of the Association. This is an ad hoc committee.

4. The Referee Committee:
 - (a) Shall have an administrative committee to provide services to members and to meet the requirements of US Soccer, US Soccer Association, the US Youth Soccer, and other governing boards.
 - (b) The administrative committee shall include the State Referee Administrator as a member.
 - (c) Members of the administrative committee shall be selected and approved by the Board of Directors of Colorado Soccer.
 - (d) A Board member of Colorado Soccer Association shall serve as Board Liaison for the Referee Committee. The Board member shall be appointed by the President of Colorado Soccer Association and approved by a majority of the Board members of Colorado Soccer Association and the Referee Committee.
5. The League Operations and Structure Committee shall oversee and direct the operation of Leagues managed by or affiliated with the Association. The committee shall be responsible for revising league structure as necessary.
6. The Recreational League Operating Committee shall oversee and direct the Association's recreational soccer programs. It shall also develop and implement interclub and intermediate level competition. This shall be a standing committee.
7. The Hall of Fame committee shall select entrants for admission to the Colorado Soccer Hall of Fame. This shall be a standing committee.
8. Investment Committee. The investment committee shall be responsible for reviewing and approving the fundamental operations of the Association investment and financial Operations. It shall also develop and update an investment policy statement as needed and exercise due diligence procedures for selecting and monitoring the investment options. It shall retain and evaluate an independent investment manager and take appropriate actions, including selecting and removing investment managers; reviewing investment management fees paid by the plan and participants; reviewing procedures for providing financial and operational information to the board; and documenting the investment process and decisions made.

XX. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall be from July 1 to June 30.
- B. Designated Contributions. The corporation may accept any contribution, gift, grant, bequest, or devise that is designated, restricted or conditioned by the donor, provided that the designation, restriction or condition is consistent with the corporation's general tax-exempt purposes. Donor-designated contributions will be accepted for special funds, purposes or uses, and such designations generally will be honored. However, the corporation shall reserve all right, title and interest in and to and control over such contributions, and shall have authority to determine the ultimate expenditure or distribution thereof in connection with any such special fund, purpose, or use. Further, the corporation shall acquire and retain sufficient control over all donated funds (including designated contributions) to assure that such funds will be used exclusively to carry out the corporation's tax-exempt purposes.
- C. ASSOCIATION FINANCES. The monies of the Association shall be deposited in the name of the Association in financial institutions as the Board of Directors shall designate and as provided for in the Investment Policy adopted by the Board. The monies may be drawn out only on checks signed by such individuals as the Board of Directors may designate and by authorized transfers between Association accounts. Notes and commercial paper, when authorized by the Board shall be signed in the name of the Association by the President or other agent authorized by the Board.

- D. AMENDMENTS. Any amendment to these bylaws must be approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the Voting Members attending the annual general meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose of amending these bylaws.

Any proposed amendment to these bylaws may be submitted by a Voting Member, by the Board of Directors or by the Bylaws Committee.

Any proposed amendment to these bylaws must be made in writing to the Secretary at least forty-five days in advance of the annual general meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose of amending these bylaws. Any proposed amendment to these by-laws shall be sent in writing to each Voting Member at least fifteen days in advance of the annual general meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose of amending these bylaws.

- E. SAVING CLAUSE. Failure of literal or complete compliance with provisions of these bylaws with respect to dates and times of notice, or the sending or receipt of the same, or errors in phraseology of notice of proposals, which in the judgment of the members at meetings held do not cause substantial injury to the rights of members, shall not invalidate the actions or proceedings of the Board of Directors, committees or other bodies so affected.
- F. SEVERABILITY. The invalidity of any provision of these bylaws shall not affect the other provisions hereof, and in such event these bylaws shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid provision were omitted.
- G. DISSOLUTION. In the event of dissolution, the assets of a corporation in the process of dissolution shall be applied and distributed as follows:
1. All liabilities and obligations of the corporation shall be paid and discharged, or adequate provisions shall be made therefor;
 2. Assets held by the corporation on condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution, shall be returned, transferred, or conveyed in accordance with such requirement;
 3. Assets received and held by the corporation, subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational, or similar purposes, but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance by reason of the dissolution shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, societies, or organizations engaged in activities similar to those of the dissolving corporation, pursuant to a plan of distribution adopted as provided in section 7-26-104 C.R.S.;
 4. Any remaining assets may be distributed to such persons, societies, organizations, governmental entities, political subdivisions, or domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or nonprofit, as may be specified in a plan of distribution adopted.
