

STATE CUP

13B (2004) – 10 teams no quarterfinals

5-5 (two divisions of five teams)

Pool Play will consist of 4 games with the top two point getters in each division advancing to semifinals.

13G (2004) – 13 teams with quarterfinals

4-4-5 (two divisions of four and one division of five)

The two division of four will play three pool play games.

The one division of five will play four pool play games.

The top two point getters in each division advance to the quarter finals. The next two point getters advance as wild cards. Point averaging will be used for the wild card advancement – due to the one division having an additional game.

14G (2003) 11 teams no quarterfinals

3-3-5 (two cross-over divisions of three and one division of five)

In the 3 group cross-over division teams will play each team in the other division of three. Teams in the division of five will have four pool play games against the teams in this division only.

The top finisher in each division will advance to the semifinals with one wildcard. Point averaging will be used to determine the wildcard.

15G (2002) -10 teams no quarterfinals

5-5 (two divisions of five teams)

Pool Play will consist of 4 games with the top two point getters in each division advancing to semifinals.

16G (2001) – 9 teams no quarterfinals

4 -5 (one division of four teams and one division of five teams)

The division of four plays three games and the division of five plays four games. The top two point getters out of each division will advance to the semifinals.

17G (2000) – 9 teams no quarterfinals

4 -5 (one division of four teams and one division of five teams)

The division of four plays three games and the division of five plays four games. The top two point getters out of each division will advance to the semifinals.

18G (1999) – 7 teams no quarterfinals

Each team will play four games. The top four point getters will advance to the semifinals.

19G (1999) 10 teams no quarterfinals

5-5 (two divisions of five teams)

Pool Play will consist of 4 games with the top two point getters in each division advancing to semifinals.