CJSA Coaches win Regional Coaching Awards

October 27th, 2017, Farmington, CT - US Youth Soccer announced the names of the award winners chosen to represent the Eastern Region at the US Youth Soccer Awards Gala.

Paul Glover of the West Hartford Girl's Soccer League, will receive the Girls Recreation Coach of Year Award and Dennis Garcia, a coach with the Soccer Club of Guilford, will receive the Girls Competitive Coach of the Year Award. Garcia also serves as a coach with CJSA's Olympic Development Program. "Paul and Dennis represent what coaching at their respective levels is all about, their priority of developing young people through the sport of soccer is second to none and should be replicated by all", said CJSA Executive Director Josh Krusewski

Garcia and Glover were nominated after taking home statewide recognition back in January at the CJSA annual awards banquet. They will now be nominated for the national award and will be honored at the US Youth Soccer Awards Gala in Philadelphia in January 2018.
