

2010 Mike Kabanica Scholarship Winners Announced

Congratulations to the recipients of the 2010 Mike Kabanica Scholarship, awarded annually to six graduating seniors who are members of Wisconsin Youth Soccer Association.

Melissa Heck (Milwaukee Kickers Soccer Club/Tosa) will be pursuing a degree in international business and accounting while reserving some future time for travel.

Rebecca Hodous (FC Green Bay) intends to pursue a double major of criminal justice and Spanish at St. Cloud State University (MN) while a member of the soccer team.

Melissa Schultz (Brookfield Soccer Association) plans on studying physical therapy at UW-Madison and would like to pursue a doctorate in physical therapy.

Charlie Hoover (Bavarian Soccer Club) has chosen a business major at Marquette University where he has been recruited to play soccer.

Michael Schlecht (FC Milwaukee) is seeking a double major in business and computer science at Carthage College where he intends to play soccer.

Zachary Schoenike (Pewaukee Soccer Club) will pursue an education degree, specializing in mathematics and hopes to continue coaching youth soccer while in college.
