11.2. Procedures to File a Soccer Injury Claim (Medical)

11.2.1. Our claim form is required. Injured party is to obtain an insurance claim form from the local Insurance Commissioner.

11.2.2. Injured party, or parents or guardians, must complete the form. All signatures must be affixed in the proper sections. Attach all bills.

11.2.3. The recommended filing for medical claims is within 90 days of the accident. Claim need not be delayed waiting for all bills, final release by the doctor, or an explanation of benefits (if there is primary insurance).

11.2.4. If there is primary insurance, a statement of what the primary company has paid must be sent. Payments will not be sent until the explanation of benefits has been received.

11.2.5. Claim form with all bills attached must be returned to the ASSOCIATION Insurance Commissioner for verification of information.

11.2.6. When verified, the Association Insurance Commissioner signs and dates the claim form and forwards it to the State Office for processing.

11.2.7. Once the claim is on file with the insurance company, any additional bills for the same injury can be submitted without a claim form. Attach a note with the following information:

- a. STYSA
- b. Name of injured party
- c. Date of injury
- d. Claim on file

These may be sent directly to the State Office or the insurance company.

Liability Insurance

11.3. Who is covered?

11.5. Procedure to File a Soccer Liability Claim

Liability claims often result from lawsuits brought on by injured spectators, injured players and / or property damaged during a sponsored event. Notify your State Office immediately since there is normally a short period of time in which to answer these lawsuits. The State Office will in turn notify the insurance carrier. The recommended filing for liability claim is within 30 days.

The medical / liability information provided is only a very general reference to what coverage(s) the insurance policy or policies provides and is not intended to attempt to describe all of the various details pertaining to the insurance. Actual coverages detailed in the policy of insurance are always subject to all terms, provisions, conditions, and exclusions as contained therein. You should not rely upon this generalized summary, but should consult your Association Insurance Commissioner or the State Office for additional information.
