

2019 CLUB PASS FAQ's

Teams participating in the 2019 US Youth Soccer national competitions (i.e. Presidents Cup and State Cup) will be allowed to utilize the Club Pass System. Each team is responsible for providing the required information on properly registered STYSA players who they wish to Club Pass to their team for this competition. All requests for a team must be submitted through the Club Pass Request Form and must include all required information about the player. If you need an ID number or date of birth, please contact the player or the Club Registrar. Remember, the player must be properly registered with South Texas Youth Soccer Association and with the same club with which the team is registered and participating.
