

FIFA International Clearance Overview

February 2017

International Clearance Required

- Any player born outside of the United States; OR
 - e.g. player born in Italy
- Any player who has previously registered with a club outside the United States
 - e.g. player most recently competed in Canada

Practical Notes

- Prior clearance still valid if player has not subsequently registered with a club in a foreign federation
 - e.g. Brazilian player received international clearance from USSF to compete with club last season and has not registered elsewhere in the interim
- High School soccer in the United States is not affiliated with U.S. Soccer and therefore does not follow FIFA's Regulations

Amateur Clearance Methods

- Prior to 10 clearance

 - Proof of U.S. citizenship (passport, Consular Report of Birth Abroad, Certificate of Citizenship/Naturalization)
- Cleared upon receipt and approval from U.S. Soccer.

Minors Process- Background

- FIFA Regulations Article 19- general ban on the international transfer/registration of minor players
 - Enacted to protect youth soccer players from being taken advantage of by agents and/or large clubs
 - Several limited, narrow exceptions
 - FIFA places burden of proof on player
 - Very high threshold of evidence

Minors Process- General

- Applicable when:
 - Player born outside U.S. or has played with a club under a foreign federation; and
 - Player between the ages of 10-17, does not meet Prior to 10 or First Registration of U.S. citizen requirements
- e.g. player born in England who does not meet Prior to 10 or First Registration of U.S. citizen clearance avenues wants to register as a 16-year-old

- Documentation Necessary varies based on the type of clearance:
 - Moved with parents for reasons not related to soccer
 - 50 km
 - Foreign Exchange Student
 - Refugee
- Cleared upon approval from FIFA's Players' Status Committee (can take several weeks to several months) and subsequent ITC or FR

Minors Process- Parents Exception

- Must demonstrate player moved with his/her parents for reasons not related to soccer:
 - Player passport and birth certificate
 - Parent passports and visas
 - Proof of residence (lease or mortgage) and utility bill if over 6 mos. old
 - Parents proof of employment (both parents)
 - ITC/First Registration form (whichever applicable)
 - Club Letter addressing first contact with player
 - Statement from Parents describing reason for move
 - Additional documentation depending on the circumstances involved
- Most commonly used exception

Minors Process- 50km Exception

- Player lives outside the U.S., but both player and club are within 50 km of their common borders and distance between them is less than 100km:
 - Player passport and birth certificate
 - Recent utility bill for parents address
 - ITC form
 - Screenshots of distance between club, player, and border

Minors Process- Exchange Student

- Player taking part in an academic foreign exchange student program:
 - Player passport, visa and birth certificate
 - Birth parent passports, authorization to register
 - Host parent passports, authorization to register, proof of residence
 - Player exchange program application, additional info on the program

 - ITC/First Registration form (whichever applicable)
 - Club Letter addressing first contact with player
- Duration of program must be less than a year, or if longer than a year, the player must be turning 18 in less than a year or have less than a year remaining

Minors Process- Refugee

- Unaccompanied refugee player moving without parents:
 - Proof of refugee status issued by U.S. government
 - Player passport and birth certificate
 - Government decision regarding legal custody of the player and custody holder's authorization to register
 - Declaration of status of player's parents
 - ITC/First Registration form (whichever applicable)
- Refugee player moving with parents:
 - Use Parents Exception, but substitute proof of refugee status issued by U.S. government for parents visas and employment verification

First Registration of non-U.S. Citizen (18+)

- Applicable when: player born outside U.S. who has never registered to play elsewhere
 - e.g. player born in Panama who has never registered with a club in Panama or under any other federation
- Documentation Necessary:
 - First Registration Form
 - Proof of ID (passport, visa, permanent resident card, birth certificate)
- Cleared upon confirmation of no registration record from federation where player was born

International Transfer Certificate (18+)

- Applicable when: last club that the player played for is under a foreign federation
 - e.g. played with FMF affiliate club
- Documentation Necessary:
 - ITC Form
 - Proof of ID (passport, visa, permanent resident card, birth certificate)
- Cleared upon receipt and processing of ITC from federation where player previously played; Provisional on day 31 after we sent the request if no reply

Practical Note: U.S. Territories

- Players born in Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands and Guam, must receive international clearance despite U.S. citizenship
- Each territory has their own Federation which is a member of FIFA
