Field Marshal - General Field Marshal Duties are:

- Assure all games have referees about 5 to 10 minutes before the game times.
- Radio Headquarters if referees are missing. Introduce yourself to the referees and let them know which corner of the field you will be sitting on.
- If requested radio for Medical for any medical needs for player, coaches, officials or spectators.
- Radio disruptive behavior, spectator unrest, fights, etc to Headquarters. Do not attempt to intercede in a problem.
- Give general guidance (field locations, game times, etc.) if asked.

Detailed instructions & a T-shirt (if you can't make the meeting) will be given when you check in at the headquarters tent 30 minutes before your shift time.

Hydration – Very Important but VERY heavy job. Checking and filling cooler with ice and water for each field and tent as needed.

Volunteer Tent – Working in one of the tents. Running field marshals to their fields, giving other field marshals lunch breaks, getting medical ice when needed, etc.
